

Turn even the most ordinary items into extraordinary, extra-spooky Halloween giveaways!

Hosting a Halloween event this year or just want to reward your patients with some spirited treats? Boost up the “boo factor” with these adorable Halloween crafts, using the everyday giveaways you already have on hand!

Turn ordinary toothbrushes into one of the most-wanted treats you hand out this season. And who wouldn't go batty for lip balm when it's transformed into a cute Halloween critter?

Follow these easy instructions to scare up some smiles this Halloween!

Batty for Lip Balm

Supplies:

- Lip Balm
- Black card stock
- Glue dots or hot glue gun
- Bat template (free download here)
- Scissors

1. Download bat template, cut out and trace with pencil onto black card stock several times, depending on how many lip balm bats you plan to make; cut out bats from black card stock.
2. Place a small dab of glue from your hot glue gun or one glue dot in center of the bat.
3. Press lip balm onto glue dot and hold for a few seconds until secure.

Watch the little tricksters' eyes light up when you hand these fun treats out!

Too-Cute Toothbrush

Supplies:

- 12" x 12" Card stock or scrapbook paper in fun Halloween prints or colors: 1 sheet for every 4 toothbrushes
- Washi tape – various Halloween themes or colors
- Paper cutter
- Stickers – small bats, pumpkins, black cats, etc.

1. Measure and cut out strips of card stock or scrapbook paper 2.5" x 9" long.
2. Place toothbrush in center of the strip and tape down with two strips of Washi tape.
3. Decorate with Halloween stickers to jazz them up, then pass them out to little ones so they can chase away the cavity creeps!
